

Inново Sample Book Cover Description:

- For the cover, I envision people with downcast or depressed demeanors—appearing either disgusted with life, financially broke, very sad or crying, or simply just plain tired of life.
- I envision a huge glorious light or huge wonderful arms of God/Jesus encircling all the people that are hurting.
- The cover needs to be original, attractive and contemporary / modern and light in color choice.
- The overall look of the cover should be light in color combinations. I do not like dark covers or dark colors.
- I would like the cover to have a protestant Christian feel.
- The intent is to have people drawn to the book--to want to read it because they see that Jesus/God is there to comfort people in need.
